

Welcome to Rio!

Rio is a captivating city. This city lies on the lower part of the country. It is a port city with a beautiful view from the nearby mountains. The city comes to life at night becoming even more beautiful. The night life is phenomenal.

There are dance clubs and pubs. The day life is just as exciting though.

There are a wide range of interesting museums. The botanic gardens are full of extraordinary species and is great for bird watchers. There are sports to play, beaches to tan on, and places to explore. You intrigued yet? Open this brochure for more information

This is a famous statue in Rio, called Christ the Redeemer.

This is one of many museums in Rio.

Josh's World Travels Inc.

495 East Dexter Trail, Mason MI, 48854

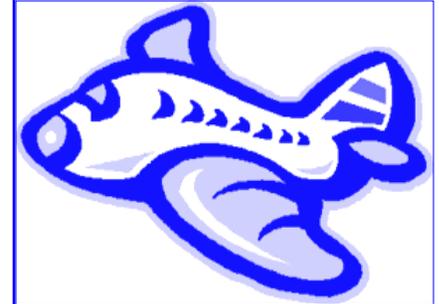

(517) 410-4042

77reesepieces77@gmail.com

Josh's World Travels Inc.

Josh's World
Travels Inc.

Rio De Janeiro,
Brazil

Josh's World Travels Inc.

Tel: (517) 410-4042

Get Ready To Explore Rio

Rio is filled with beautiful white sand beaches.

Now get into detail on the wonders of Brazil. The beaches are full of white sand and people. There are shops and volleyball games. Some of the beaches names include Ipanema, Copacabana, and Leblon. There are museums to explore that hold gems, war artifacts, pieces of art, and history. The nature lovers dream in Rio is the Botanical Gardens, that hold more than 7,000 plants and 140 different species of birds. The carnivals that take place in Rio a wonder all there own. These festivals are part of the culture and a great experience for foreigners. The famous statue Christ the Redeemer. This is a beautiful statue that is on the top of a beautiful “mountain.” The activities include you could visit the Maracana Stadium and watch a “football” game or as we would call it a soccer game.

You can play volleyball, beach football, frescobal (something along the lines of tennis), and golf. Other big activities in the paradise of Rio include parachuting, hang-gliding, diving, squash, water skiing and wind surfing. Another positive of Rio is its climate. It has an average temperature of around 70-81 degrees. Rio has multiple sections. Be aware that some areas are not as safe as others. The city of Rio is also a very diverse place. Hosting many people of different races, religions, and lifestyles. There is also plenty of places to shop in Rio. It is ranked 19th out of 26 in fashion capitals. It is one of only two located in Latin America. An is before the other city which is Buenos Aires. The cuisine in Rio is also another wonder all its own. As you can see Rio is a tourists dream. We'll be waiting for you in paradise! Call now!

Tel: (517) 410-4042

Josh's World Travel Inc.